New Business:

Nominations for 2023 Cottonboll Quilt Guild officers were announced by the nominating committee. The floor was opened to any other nominations. Guild members wishing to nominate a member for a position may email the guild, and those members will be added to the ballot. The final vote for the officers will take place in October via email unless there is only one candidate for each office. The nominations to date for the 2023 officers are as follows:

- President – Michelle Kloeti
- Vice President – Teri Meinhardt
- Parliamentarian – Esther Flitcroft
- Secretary – Irene Nelson
- Treasurer – Pat Hobaugh
- Social Media – Cathy Browne
- Retreat Committee – Caroline Marti & Harriet Haughton
- Program Committee – Nola Chambers
- Daytime Birthday Group – Irene Nelson
- Nighttime Birthday Group – Cathy Browne

Michelle updated the guild members on Esther Flitcroft's family. Her son is at home (Yay!) and is improving. Esther had surgery 9-14, but is home and recovering nicely.

Linda Hayes informed guild members about the October guild presentation. Rebecca Bush, a curator for the Columbus Museum, will be speaking to the guild. She also reminded the guild that the presentation for the November meeting will be a "Prairie Points Party." Kim Scarborough will lead a hands-on demo of how to make and use prairie points in quilts.

At 6:45, Linda Hayes introduced the September Program.

Presentation – Cathy McVay & her family heritage through quilting/sewing.

Cathy (with the help of her sister and niece) presented many quilts made by her relatives. She told a story with each piece. The oldest one dated back to the 1860's. She shared an awesome sewing journal. Cathy presented a power point of the individuals that she spoke about. We were able to put a face to the lovely pieces.

Show and Tell began at 7:18.

Flavin Glover shared some pillows from Textile Museum and a lovely table topper.

Pat Hobough showed her Jimmy Buffet quilt.

Teri Meinhardt showed her BOM blocks.

Nola Chambers showed her blue quilt.

Meeting was closed by Michelle Kloeti at 7:30 pm.
