

CBQG

March 2018

I. Welcome/Announcements

Cory welcomed new and returning members, and acknowledged guest we had joining us.

II. Emaildodo

The new email platform has been implemented and we will no longer be using Yahoo groups to communicate with member. April Hurley has entered all the members and sent an email to the group. Please contact April if you are not receiving the emails.

III. Judy Wood Block of the Month

There were 17 blocks entered into the drawing this month. Each block = a ticket, so you can bring more than one!! The winner was Zehron Martin!! Judy will not be at the April meeting and asked that we turn our blocks in to Cory.

IV. 501(c)7 Status

Cory continued the conversation about the guild's IRS status as a social group. She will send out an informative email for those not present. Then a vote will be sent to the membership via email.

V. Retreat Committee

Jennie Swearngen gave us an update on retreat. Retreat will be May 17-20, 2018. There are still 2 spots available. Reminders about the challenge, games, etc. Other events will include raffle drawings, fat quarter drawings, RLC game that will require (5) 2.5" strips to participate. Please bring money to tip the staff.

VI. Pioneer Day Quilt Show

Linda Hayes is looking for members who would like to enter their quilts in the Pioneer Day quilt show taking place in Ft. Mitchell, AL. You can drop your quilts off at Stitch Therapy, Sew Much Fun, and Sunday Best, or you can bring them to the guild's meeting. There will be no entry fee but donations are welcome. There will be demos by Sunday Best, Flavin Glover and Sew Much Fun.

VII. Upcoming Workshops

Allie updated us on the upcoming workshops. In June we will host Tammy Silvers. There are two workshops available. Friday will be Dutch Windmills, and Saturday will be Christmas Cactus.

VIII. Pre-program

Meredith with the East Alabama Mental Health office joined us to give us information on their residence. They have residence in group homes, independent living and in-patient. Our guild will be donating charity quilts to this organization in December.

IX. Program

This month our program was delivered by the ladies at Sew Bernina from Montgomery. They displayed and talked about their quilts and current blocks from designer Jen Kingwell. We truly enjoyed their show!!

See you all next month for our March meeting.
