Cotton Boll Quilt Guild Meeting Minutes

Christmas Party – Home of Glenn and Flavin Glover
861 Ogletree Rd., Auburn, AL

6:30 Meeting was opened by Michelle Kloeti, President. Members of the guild gathered around the “snack table” and filled their plates. As members enjoyed the refreshments, Michelle addressed the members.

Old Business:

Michelle asked for a motion to pass November 2022 Meeting Minutes. Mary Anne Hampton moved to accept the minutes and Nola Chambers seconded the motion. All members were in favor, none opposed. Michelle Kloeti declared that the minutes passed.

Due to the earlier date of the December Meeting, the monthly bank statement had not been received, so the December financial report is pending.

Michelle reported that the Executive Board would have a meeting on December 15, 2022, to transition the duties from the 2022 officers to the 2023 officers.

Michelle announced the new incoming officers.

New Business:

Michelle announced that our first guild meeting of the year would be on January 19 at 6:30. It will still be available via zoom.

February Program will be a zoom presentation. Rosa Parr from Canada will be or presenter.

Michelle Kloeti adjourned the business part of the meeting by presenting our hostess with a gift and poinsettia.

After refreshments were finished and business meeting concluded, many guild members showed their beautiful quilt projects. Our hostess, Flavin, entertained us with a story about her mother and quilting. She told us about loaning family quilts/heirlooms to the Montgomery Archives.

Minutes respectfully taken by:
Irene Nelson, Secretary
