CBQG Guild Meeting
Updated July 26, 2019
July 18, 2019

Thanks to Brenda Gerbec who took minutes in the absence of Bonnie Sanderson

- Business
 - Esther Flitercroft called the meeting to order. Announced that Sherry Watkins has stepped down as president. Esther will call a board meeting within the next 10 days. Also asked for board members to stay after the meeting.
 - Cathy Browne stated that it is specified in the bylaws on how to handle the situation when the president resigns. Esther will check into it.
 - Old business –
 - Cathy McVey is asking for help with comfort quilts. She will be handing it over at year end.
 - The June minutes and Financial reports were voted on and approved.
 - New Business
 - It was brought up that the guild would like to do something for the family of Carol Aderholdt. Cathy Browne motioned to make a $100 donation to a charity and Doretha Smith or Michelle Kloeti will call the family for suggestions. The motion was seconded (unknown by whom). It was voted on and approved by the members to make a donation.
 - Flaven Glover announced that the Jan Dempsey Fiber Art Show is an exceptional exhibit and encouraged members to go. The exhibit is held at the Jan Dempsey Center in Auburn, AI through the end of July.
- Show and tell.
- Ice Cream Social commenced.

Meeting adjourned
