Cotton Boll Quilt Guild Zoom Meeting Minutes

Esther Flitcroft, Board President, called meeting to order at 6:30 pm. Esther extended a big "Thank You" to Cathy Browne for working tirelessly on the social media and website. Cathy has done a phenomenal job with statistics and show and tell.

Old Business

- Minutes from February 2021 Meeting were up for approval. Kim Scarborough moved to accept the minutes. Cathy Browne seconded the motion.

New Business

- Ann Bentley prepared the new financial report from 2-21-21. Becky Berry moved to accept the report. Laura seconded the motion.
- Joyce Powell updated guild members on retreat information and encouraged everyone to send in the form and money as soon as possible. Total headcount is needed two weeks earlier than in previous years, due to Covid and availability of food.
  - Michelle Kloeti reminded the guild that there will be no triple rooms this year due to social distancing. The cost for the retreat is $351 for a single room and $271 for a double room.
  - There will be an opportunity to play LCR. Each person playing will need 5 fat quarters of quilt store quality fabric. For each game, five fat quarters will be required. Please plan accordingly.

Esther Flitcroft informed that guild that she received an email from Ceretha Willets confirming that Ann and Ceretha got together to review the guild accounting records. Ceretha reported that all records were in order and that no discrepancies were found. Michelle Kloeti moved to accept the audit and Laura seconded the motion.

Becky Berry updated guild members on the April presentation in lieu of guild meeting. Jen Kingwell from Australia would be presenting. Due to the time difference and time constraints, there would be neither business meeting nor show and tell.

- Becky reminded the guild that all must activate the mute button so that Jen Kingwell can speak without interruption.
- No recording of the presentation
- There will be a question & answer session at the end of the program.

Becky Berry introduced, Froncie Quinn of Hoopla Patterns, as a guest speaker. Froncie is a quilt historian and fabric designer. She spoke to the guild she has produced using historical quilts from quilt museums.

Michelle Kloeti announced that the Auburn Chamber of Commerce is having "In-person" meeting of 20 participants max. Hopefully before long, we will be meeting in person.

Retreat Chat -Esther commented how excited she was about retreat. She reminded everyone to bring their fat quarters to play LCR (left center Right). 5 fat quarters per game. It is a good idea to bring extra. Teri Meinhardt wanted to know when an individual was approved for the retreat. Answer to that was, "when you send in the form and the money." Ann Bentley reported that there are 23 paid attendee to date, and we need 25 to break even due to cost of food. Michelle Kloeti reminded the guild that if they wanted to invite a friend, the friend needs to be a member of the guild.

Since there was no more guild information shared, Cathy Browne ended the recording of the meeting so that the members could just visit.
