At September guild meeting, Esther proposed the idea of having a guild Christmas party. No ideas came from the guild members. The December guild meeting will be held via zoom on December 16th to install new officers.

CBQG Board meeting is slated for December 10 to have current board members meet with new board members. Old will pair with new and explain job and duties.

Cameron Barker, grandson of Louise Barker, emailed the guild to gather information and stories about his grandmother. Louise was one of the charter members of CBQG. She was very loved by all guild members. She was a little lady with a big personality. Cameron would like to compile a memory books with photos and stories about his grandmother. To submit information to him, please send to loveofmotorsports@gmail.com or call 678-834-2050.

Program:

Becky Berry introduced our speaker, Beth Hunter, from Warrior, Alabama. Beth is a history teacher with a passion for quilting, needlework and sewing. She is a member of Birmingham Quilt Guild. She has found a unique way to combine her love of Alabama, history, and quilting. She is currently working on a book on Alabama quilts and hopes to inspire enthusiasm for the dying art of quilting to others. She and her husband go to counties in Alabama, take pictures, and interview people. Unfortunately, Covid has affected her travels. She still needs lots of counties. Some of the counties that she presented quilts for were: Blount, Lauderdale, Wilcox, Tuscaloosa, Lawrence, Marshall, and Jefferson county.

Beth Hunter's contact information is: beth@bethhunter.com and alabamaquilts.net

Program ended at 7:35.
